

QT

As the award-winning designer hotel collections' first property in Southeast Asia, and first outside of Australia and New Zealand, QT Singapore sees the iconic Eastern Extension Telegraph building built in 1927, transformed into the Group's newest hub of playful luxury. Renowned for distinctive design, immersive experiences, and exceptional 'unexpected and unrequested' signature service, the arrival of QT Singapore marks a new era of hospitality in the local hotel scene.

Located next to the iconic Lau Pa Sat hawker, one of Singapore's landmark attractions and in the heart of the financial district, the hotel provides effortless convenience for corporate and leisure guests.

Offering elevated food and beverage concepts and QT's award-winning signature quirk and service philosophy, QT introduces the energy and vibrancy that guests already love in Australia and New Zealand, in Singapore.
