WHERE FRANCE MEETS NEW SOUTH WALES

HORNER

W I N E S

Founded in the Hunter Valley, Horner Wines is a small organic producer led by Ash and Lauren Horner. Working from Pokolbin, their approach is hands-on and minimal, with each wine shaped by site, season, and a deep respect for the fruit.

Ash's style is instinctive and unpretentious, shaped by years working with some of Australia's most respected producers, yet grounded in a belief that wine should be shared, not overcomplicated.

"Taking every grape on its merit and turning it into the best wine it can be is what drives everything we do."
—Ash Horner

At Parlour, we are drawn to their focus on French varietals reimagined in New South Wales. Grapes such as Marsanne and Viognier, traditionally associated with the south of France, are expressed here with brightness, texture and a distinct Australian energy, offering a natural harmony with French cuisine.

BORDEAUX FRANCE

BORDEAUX RIGHT-BANK

The Right Bank sits east of the Dordogne River and is famous for its Merlot blends, supported by Cabernet Franc. The clay and limestone soils here produce wines that are softer, and more approachable in youth than the firmer, more tannic Left Bank styles.
