

MERRY EVERYTHING

QTHOTELS.COM

QTH CANBERRA

Another year ending? We're just getting started.

That's 'cause when EOY closes in, QT Canberra goes all out.

Think decadent design, and excessively festive vibes. It's that kinda fa-la lavishness that'll get instant RSVPs from the whole dang office.

We've got everything they're pining for and more. Honey smoked ham, but with a unexpected flavour twist. Roast turkey, braised not a smidge short of fall-off-the-bone. Even the canapés are dressed in Josh Smith-Thirkell holiday best.

So however you're planning to overindulge the dream team, make sure it's got Capitol Bar & Grill involved. Go from ho ho to whoa.

Book your wildly merry wrap-up now and toast to 2025.

LUCKY'S SPEAKEASY

If only these walls could talk. Dark and mysterious, Lucky's is a slick, prohibition-style speakeasy for those looking to take the edge off. This is the best bar in Canberra to get sauced in secret.

Mood lighting and black leather couches set the tone while talented bartenders put a contemporary twist on classic cocktails. With a centralised bar, outdoor courtyard and tailored event packages, this iconic hangout is ideal for parties and private dinners of 10–300 guests.

CAHOOTS

Canberra's best kept secret, Cahoots Event Lounge is political chic at its finest. Inspired by the Senate Chamber, dark leather couches are set in front of wooden panelling and a wall of Prime Ministers past.

Not only a space for hand-shaking and deal making, the star of the show is the grand bar where beers on tap are served to both those for and against. Pull up a stool, or lay low, this isn't Parliament House, it's Cahoots.
